Coming in at #5.....

Horan Signs With PSG

The 18 year old star of the Colorado Rush turned down a full ride scholarship to the University of North Carolina, and became the first American female to by-pass the college game and instead head overseas to become a professional athlete when she signed with French giants Paris Saint-Germain in July. The move has paid off to date with Horan scoring 8 goals in her first 9 games played as PSG sits in second in the league at the holiday break. "This heart (pictured) was for the Rush coaches/fans that were at the game... Don't know if they saw it but yes... it's for RUSH!!!!" exclaimed Horan after a recent game.
