

Hawaii Rush have just finished up their 2012 Holiday Camp with special guests Tobin Heath (WNT), Colin Clark (Huston Dynamo/LA Galaxy) and Jordan Angeli (U20WNT) along with Erik Bushey (Colorado Rush TD).

The traditional event provides an excellent opportunity for the Hawaii Rush players to interact with and learn from top professionals in the country. Three days of hard work and detailed instruction from the coaches sparked new dreams and desire to improve on many of the young participants. Under the close supervision of the staff the players got the opportunity to execute difficult and sophisticated skills with quality. Coaches patiently broke down the skills during the learning phases and encouraged players to use their skills during games. They were kind enough to participate and be part of the games, allowing the players the opportunity that very few are fortunate to have...play with the pros!

| | |
|---|--|
| =" Erik Bushey instructing players at camp. | =" Jordan Angeli and campers watch the pros. |
| =" Tobin Heath gets to know some players. | =" Colin Clark demonstrates heading technique. |