

(02.10.11) Four Colorado Rush

players will travel to Florida to partake in the ECNL and US Club id2 national player program over the weekend. U16 Nike players Danica Evans, Madi Hall, Gabbi Miranda and Morgan Stanton will attend the event from February 10 to the 13th at Florida State University. U17 Nike player Lindsey Horan was also invited but will not be able to attend.

The id2 National Player Program is designed to give top level player more exposure to National Team coaching staff members. The girls will play 6 games in front of National Team coaches over the course of the camp in addition to other educational presentations.

To see a complete list of players invited to the camp, click here.

(Pictured from left: Miranda, Hall, Stanton, Evans)