

Tennessee Rush and Collierville LOBOS

join forces

With a common goal of improving player development, Executive Directors and Boards of Tennessee Rush and Collierville LOBOS have been in discussions for several months. We are now excited to announce that both the Tennessee Rush Board of Directors and the Collierville Soccer Association Board of Directors have voted to unite. This union has been made with long-term player and club development in mind.

Although we have taken this first important step, we still have work to do to ensure that this change is implemented seamlessly for our membership. We fully expect that all of the important steps will be complete prior to tryouts. We understand that clear communication with all of our parents and players is critical to success. Upcoming try-out dates, times and locations will be posted in the coming weeks. You will also receive a comprehensive Try-Out package (with a complete "Question & Answer" section about the union) in the coming weeks.

"This is a very exciting partnership for Tennessee Rush. These are two strong clubs in the state and this can only benefit the clubs," commented Rush Soccer President Tim Schulz. "Tennessee Rush is a Cinderella story. When we partnered with them, they only had two teams. They have grown in quantity and quality. Amazing story! Now, with the Lobo's staff, programs and all of the background they bring, this is the top club in the state. I am very proud to be part of the Tennessee Rush the Lobos and all of the powers that made this partnership happen."
