

The National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) recently announced the 2012 Youth Girls All-America team and four Rush players were named All-Americans.

Lizzy Raben (verbally committed to Duke for 2013), Morgan Stanton (verbally committed to Santa Clara for 2013), Gabbi Miranda (verbally committed to UCLA for 2013) and Madi Hall (verbally committed to Portland for 2013) of the U18 Colorado Rush Nike team were all named to the prestigious All-America team along with other top players in the country. Colorado Rush, along with Concorde Fire (GA) and CASL (NC) lead the nation with 4 players each being named to the 2012 team.

Darian Jenkins (Sparta United, verbally committed to UCLA for 2013) and Zoey Goralski (Team Chicago FC, verbally committed to UCLA for 2013) were also named to the All-America team. These two players have joined the U18 Colorado girls for ECNL play this year.

In addition to their duties with the U18 team, Lizzy, Morgan, Gabbi and Madi also play for the Colorado Rush Women of the USL W-League.

Congratulations ladies! Rush Nation is proud of you!

For the complete list of 2012 All-Americans, please click here.