

REACH Ambassadors play an important role in making the R.E.A.C.H. program a success. Without their tireless devotion and volunteer hours, the program wouldn't exist. Ambassadors brave the heat and the cold to help collect, organize and ship equipment to needy youth all around the world.

What's it like to be an ambassador? Here are just a few quotes from several of our ambassadors:

"As a national ambassador for the R.E.A.C.H Program I have learned the true meaning of sharing. It has opened my eyes to the disparity between the abundance of gear in the United States and the lack of soccer equipment in third world countries. With the help of our club we have brought the joy of the game to children around the world. The R.E.A.C.H. Program has allowed children in our club to get involved with soccer around the world." -Danielle Foxhoven

"Soccer brings the people of the world together. Participation in REACH allows me to share my love of soccer with kids all over the world. Every REACH working day in the freezing storage unit makes me think about the kids who are not as fortunate as I am and the smiles they will have across their face when they receive the soccer jerseys, balls, cleats, and other equipment."
