

New Zealand Rush (Olé Football Academy) is looking for a full time assistant coach in their u18 residency program. This a unique opportunity:

- work with national team calibre players
- in a full-time high performance environment
- good compensation package with living expenses taken care of
- top football facility in the country
- network with US University and professional coaches
- and see a beautiful part of the world

For more info see the attached job description, info pack, and visit their website - www.ole.co.nz