

Lindsey Horan, currently in Colorado visiting family for Christmas and to participate in Colorado Rush's annual Alumni Week, is the senior member of the team recently named to compete in the 2014 World Cup Qualifying competition the United States U20 Women's national team. Though not the oldest member on the team, Horan is the only professional player in the group as well as the only player who has earned a CAP (2) with the full women's national team. The competition begins January 9th in the Cayman Islands. Please read more...

It has been a wonderful year for Lindsey who finished as the third highest American female goalscorer for the year. See the complete list here.
