

Each player has his or her own story about what they do to play this great sport. Ryan Williams of the U18 Development Academy team at Colorado Rush has had to endure a lot to carry out his passion. Not only did Ryan move to Colorado from Hawaii Rush two seasons ago, literally leaving family and friends behind to pursue the next level of soccer, he also has had to persevere and strive through physical pain and mental fatigue as he battles an uncommon disease. Listen and watch as you gain further insight into one of your Rush-mates!
