

Lindsey Horan (CO Rush) and the USA U20 Women's National Team were crowned CONCACAF champions after a 2-1 come from behind victory over Canada. The US scored twice in the final 11 minutes of the game to take the title and advance to the 2012 U20 Women's World Cup to be held in Japan, August 19-September 8.

The victory allows Horan to attend a World Cup event after falling short in 2010 when she was playing with the U17's.
